

Plan Your Future

Apply to SWCC - 9 Easy Steps

We will help you every step of the way from your first campus visit to the last day of class. Your admissions representative will follow you through the admission process, your student financial services specialist will look after your financial aid application. We welcome your questions and encourage you to contact your admissions representative and student financial services specialist for answers and help whenever you need it. After all, we want you to feel good about the choices you've made.

9 easy steps for admission to Southwest Career College

1. Meet with a Southwest Career College admissions representative to discuss your career planning goals and explore the career training SWCC offers. Discover if SWCC offers the career that could be your future.
2. If you like what you see, submit your application. There is no application fee!
3. Complete a preliminary financial plan visit with a SWCC student financial aid specialist to estimate your grants, loans, and personal investment.
4. Ask about scholarship possibilities. Your Admissions representative will have applications for you.
5. Visit SWCC at your first opportunity. Tour the campus where your career training will take place. Meet students and instructors. Observe classes. Experience SWCC for yourself - up close and personal. It's the best way to know if SWCC is right for you.
6. Complete your financial aid application. Work with your student financial aid specialist to submit the required forms and meet deadlines for the upcoming financial aid year.
7. Make sure Admissions has received transcripts from your high school and any postsecondary institutions you have attended.
8. Attend Orientation.
9. Arrive for the first day of class!
